Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Claim 4, as presently recited, requires that the carboxylase and dehydrogenase enzymes are contained within the spreading layer, as is the NAD(P)H/thio NAD(P)H indicator. However, the specification is limited to a description of the enzymatic reagents constituting a coating on the impermeable support, rather than being combined with the indicator in the spreading layer. See e.g. example 2. The embodiment of newly amended claim 4 is nowhere presented in the originally filed disclosure.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

> A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –
> (e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

3. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Tanaka et al (US 6,068,989).

See column 7, lines 13-16 and claim 5.

4. The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

5. Applicant cannot rely upon the foreign priority papers to overcome this rejection because a translation of said papers has not been made of record in accordance with 37 CFR 1.55. See MPEP § 201.15.

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

> (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

8. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970);and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

9. Claim 4 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 5-6 of U.S. Patent No. 6,068,989. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the patented claims recite the incorporation of thioNAD(PH) and NAD(P)H into the waterpermeable layers as a whole. This language must be interpreted in light of the specification, which establishes that the patented claim limitation refers to the indicator composition being provided in the reagent layer or any other one or more layers, including the spreading layer (see column 7, lines 13-16). Therefore the patented claim would have been interpreted as recited the indicator composition being provided in either the reagent layer or the spreading layer or another waterpermeable layer. The instant claims would have resulted merely from the selection of the spreading layer from the recited possible layers, which selection would have been obvious as clearly directed by the patented claim.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 4 have been considered and deemed not persuasive. Applicant points to page 2 of the specification teaching the incorporation of a water soluble indicator in the spreading layer, and Example 2 teaching the incorporation of NADH and thioNADH into the spreading layer. However, neither of these disclosures support the language of claim 4 which forms the basis of the rejection under 35 USC 112, first paragraph. Specifically, neither disclosure teaches the incorporation of the carboxylase and dehydrogenase enzymes in the spreading layer.

11. Applicant further indicates in the comments filed 03-26-04 that a Declaration and Terminal disclaimer have been filed in response to the rejections under 35 USC 102(e) and obvious double patenting, respectively. However, neither document has been received.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
